Social Justice & The Media: The Nicholas Kristof Project

23rd Annual Echo Student Dialogue
Tuesday, April 13, 2021
Virtual Meeting - 10:00am – 11:30am EST
Sponsored by Mary Joy & Jerre Stead

On April 13, 2021, well-prepared students from around the world who have studied Social Justice & The Media, have the once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to present their thoughtful and informed questions to NY Times Columnist, Nicholas Kristof. This year's event is virtual and open to the world. Participate by attending the Student Dialogue and/or by submitting a question to Mr. Kristof.

Attend the Student Dialogue

- An unlimited number of high school and university students from around the world are invited to attend.
- All attendees are asked to study the Echo curriculum, Social Justice & The Media www.echosocialjusticeandmedia.org in advance of the Student Dialogue.
- Registration is required by all attendees using Echo's Registration Link.
- Log-in information for each attendee will be provided after registration and prior to the Dialogue.

Submit Your Question to Mr. Kristof

- High school and university students from around the world have the opportunity to submit their thoughtful, informed questions, for Mr. Kristof on the topic of the media's responsibility to promote Social Justice.
- Questions must be video recorded vertically in MP4 format (standard iPhone Recording)
- Each question should be no longer than 20 – 30 seconds in length.
- Submit all questions using Echo's Registration Link by March 21st.
- When recording a question, state your name, school, city/state/country before asking your question.
- Ensure that both your Echo Registration and the MP4 video question include correct information.
- Name each file as follows: firstnamelastname.city.

How The Student Dialogue Works

- Submitted questions will be curated and presented to Mr. Kristof on April 13th, as part of the Echo Student Dialogue.
- Nicholas Kristof will respond live to student submitted pre-recorded video questions.
- As many questions as possible will be presented as time allows.
